Revision of Rates of Royalty for Coal

1350. SHRI PRAVAT KUMAR SAMANTARAY: SHRI SARADA MOHA-NTY:

Will the Minister of ENERGY be pleased to state:

- (a) whether it is a fact that the revision in the rates of royalty for different grades of coal which has been due since 1985 has not been finalised so far, although the State Government of Orissa, West Bengal and Bihar have put forward a proposal in this regard suggesting that royalty rates be fixed on ad valorem basis; and
- (b) if so, by when the Central Government propose to revise the rates of royalty on coal?

THE MINISTER OF INFOR-MATION AND BROADCASTING AND PARLIAMENTARY AFF-AIRS (SHRI P. UPENDRA): (a) and (b) Section 9 (3) of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation & Development) Act, 1957 provides that the Central Government may enhance or reduce the rate of royalty but stipulates that the Central Government shall not enhance the rate or royalty more than once during any period of three years. Prior to 1986, the stipulated period was four years. The last revision of royalty on coal was in 1981 and, therefore, royalty could have been revised from 1985 and once in three years thereafter.

The issue of revision of rates of royalty on coal was considered by the Government. Some State Governments have also represented to the Central Govt, to revise the rates of royalty on coal and fix it on an ad valorem basis.

The rates of royalty on coal have not been revised because some State Governments have levied cesses at high rates which have contributed to substantial increase in price of coal paid by the users. There is no maximum time limit prescribed under Mines & Minerals (Regulation & Development) Act, 1957 for revision in rates of royalty.
