MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME FOR THE PRESENTATION OF THE REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSES ON THE SHIPPING AGENTS (LICENSING) BILL, 1988

SHRI BHASKAR ANNAJI MASODKAR (Maharashtra): Sir, I beg to move the following Motion:—

“That the time appointed for the presentation of the Report of Joint Committee of the Houses on the Shipping Agents (Licensing) Bill, 1987, be extended up to the first day of the last week of the 151st Session of the Rajya Sabha.”

The question was put, and the motion was adopted.

DISCUSSION ON THE WORKING OF THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS—Contd.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI JAGESH DESAI): Shri Narasimha Rao.

श्री रजनी रंजन साहू : उपसभाध्यक्ष जी, आज के अखबार में छपे हुए पर, जो 'टाइम्स आफ इण्डिया' में छपा है... (व्यवधान)...

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI JAGESH DESAI): I have called the Minister.

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI P. V. NARASIMHA RAO): Sir, this debate, I am afraid, has been rather intermittent and of a diffused nature spread over many days and also interrupted by three days on which we had no Parliament sittings. However, Members have made some important points. Although each one of these issues needs a separate debate, deserves a separate debate in the Houses of Parliament, pending the possibility of getting enough time for such debates, I shall only respond to certain selected issues which I consider important and which have been raised in the debate.

Sir, I start with the world situation in general because that is how most of the Members also started their speeches, and that is how one has to start any debate on international relations. The situation as we found it after the INF treaty, has been described in many debates in this House, in many of our speeches, in many fora of the world. We made a categorical statement, positive statement on the floor of the United Nations. We expressed great hope that the situation as it developed after the INF treaty, would continue unabated in the same direction and become irreversible as soon as possible. We could see the light at the end of the tunnel and we could also see, or at least imagine, that the tunnel is not too long.

There was a change from confrontation to dialogue. These are sentences which have been found in
