

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI NAMO NARAIN MEENA):

(a) and (b) As per National Sample Survey Organisation data on 'Indebtedness of Farmer Households' (2003), 51.4% of farmer households do not access credit, either from institutional or non-institutional sources. 27.30% of total farm households are indebted to formal sources and 21.3% to informal sources, including moneylenders.

(c) and (d) No, Sir. However, in order to address the issue that in some regions of Maharashtra, a large number of farmers had taken loans from private moneylenders and the loan waiver scheme did not cover them, an announcement has been made in the Budget 2009-10 to set up a task force to examine the matter in detail and suggest the future course of action.

Excess staff in Ministries

†3393. SHRI BALBIR PUNJ: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Commission for Expenditure Reforms[†] constituted under the Chairmanship of K.P. Geeta Krishan has said that 20,000 posts in 36 Ministries are useless;

(b) whether the Commission has recommended to retrench one lakh posts in attached and subordinate offices of these Ministries; and

(c) if so, whether Government is considering to take any action accordingly after contemplating recommendations made by the Commission?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI NAMO NARAIN MEENA):

(a) to (c) This Ministry set up the 'Expenditure Reforms Commission (ERC)' under the Chairmanship of Shri K.P. Geethakrishnan on 28.2.2000. The ERC had presented 10 reports in all covering 36 Ministries/Departments/Organizations. Among other recommendations made relating to staff strength, the ERC recommended abolishing around 42,000 posts. Against this, as per information available, around 26,581 posts have been abolished.

Work studies conducted by the SIU

3394. SHRI MANGALA KISAN: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Staff Inspection Unit (SIU) is conducting work studies in various Departments/Ministries of Government and some other autonomous bodies;

(b) if so, the Departments/Ministries where such studies are going on;

(c) whether objections have been received in any of the Departments over the process and method used by SIU to assess the actual work load;
