Public consultations by TRAI

2317. SHRI TIRUCHI SIVA:

SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA:

Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that TRAI convenes public consultations on the service quality standards in cellular telephony;

(b) if so, the methodology for conducting such public interactions and for the identification of participant stakeholders, the details thereof;

(c) whether any guidelines have been framed regarding periodicity and location of such consultations, the details thereof; and

(d) the data-wise, location-wise details of such consultations during three years along with participant stakeholders?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (SHRI GURUDAS KAMAT): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Though there is no laid down guidelines/format for conducting public interactions, Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) normally undertakes public consultation on an issue/subject releasing a Consultation Paper through TRAI website/Press Release inviting written comments/suggestions from stakeholders, which includes Consumer Advocacy Groups, government organizations, any member of the general public etc. The written comments/suggestion received in response to the Consultation Paper are also placed on the TRAI website. Thereafter, one or more Open House Discussion (s) is held wherein all the stakeholders including general public are invited to participate. Information regarding the details of the Open House Discussion(s) is given through TRAI website and newspaper advertisements.

(c) Periodicity and location for holding such consultation is decided depending on the nature of the issue being consulted.

(d) The details of public consultations undertaken by TRAI on quality of service standards for cellular mobile telephone service during three years (till 4.12.2009) is given in the Statement.
