It has been, inter alia, stated therein that "the Learned Judges of the Supreme Court are not opposed to declaring their assets provided that such declarations are made in accordance with due procedure laid down by a law which would prescribe (a) the authority to which the declaration would be made; (b) the form in which the declaration would have to be made along with a clear definition of what constitutes assets; and (c) proper safeguards, checks and balances to prevent misuse of the information which would be made available".
