

- (b) if so, the rationale therefor; and
- (c) whether such a situation would continue?

THE MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (DR. M. VEERAPPA MOILY): (a) to (c) Leave Travel Concession for judges is regulated by the rules framed under the acts namely, "The Supreme Court Judges (Salaries and Conditions of Service) Act, 1958" and "The High Court Judges (Salaries and Conditions of Service) Act 1954." As per provision under Rule 6-A of the Supreme Court Judges (Travelling Allowance) Rules, 1959, Judges of the Supreme Court are entitled to leave travel concession thrice a year and in terms of provision under Rule 7-A of the High Court Judges (Travelling Allowance) Rules, 1956 Judges of High Courts are entitled to leave travel concession twice a year. Both the High Court and the Supreme Court Judges were availing the Leave Travel Concession twice a year after 1986 but in 1990 the rules were changed after which Supreme Court Judges are entitled to three LTCs a year.
