(c) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI SONTOSH MOHAN DEV):

(a) POSTAL: Through the successive Five Year Plans, the Department has already built up a comprehensive postal network in Orissa. At present there are 7,535 post offices functioning in Orissa out of which 546 are in urban areas and 6,989 in rural areas. During the first two years of the Seventh Plan, namely 1985-86 and 1986-87, there was no programme of rural postal extension on account of the ban on creation of posts. The Ministry of Finance have since indicated special procedures for creation/filling up of posts required for implementation of Plan schemes. In pursuance thereof, the Department has worked out norms and all Circles including Orissa have been asked to carry out a fresh assessment in accordance with the norms. The proposals for post offices which satisfy the norms may be taken up with the Ministry of Finance for consideration. In so far as urban areas are concerned, post offices do not come under the Plan and the ban on creation of posts fully applies to such cases.

TELECOM: Targets fixed by the Government to open new Telegraph Offices during 7th Five Year Plan:—

Urban Areas—Nil

Rural Areas—290

(b) and (c) Postal: 475 rural post offices were planned for in Orissa during the Sixth Five Year Plan. 377 post offices were actually opened. On account of the intervention of the ban on creation of posts in January, 1984, the target fixed for 1983-84 partially fulfilled (123 post offices as against the target of 135). The target for 1984-85 could not be fulfilled but on special consideration, 3 rural post offices were opened in that year by relaxation of the ban.

(b) Telecom: No, Sir.

(c) As against targets of 380 offices to be opened, 343 offices were opened during 6th Five Year Plan. The shortfall of 37 was due to short supply of line materials.

Information regarding Telephone Exchanges in respect of questions (a), (b) & (c) are being collected and will be placed on the table of the House.
