Establishment of Spinning Mills in Maharashtra

1997. SHRI JAGESH DESAI: Will the Minister of TEXTILES toe pleased to state;

(a) whether it is a fact that 20 spinning mills were to be established in Maharashtra during the Sixth Five Year Plan period with institutional finance;

(to) whether it is also a fact that 11 spinning mills started construction work and spent huge amount on construction of civil work, purchase of machinery, etc. and collected about 5 crores from the members of the cooperative societies;

(c) whether it is also a fact that I.D.B.D., I.F.C.I, etc. are not granting loans to the cooperative spinning mills as they feel there is no necessity of establishing new spinning mills in the country at present;
and

(d) if so, what steps the Central Government propose to take so that infrastructure created with farmers* money and State Government finance is not wasted?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI S. KRISHNA KUMAR): (a) Yes, Sir.

(to) According to available information, 11 spinning mills took steps for civil construction, purchase of machinery etc. As reported by the Maharashtra Cooperative Spinning Mills Federation, some share capital has been collected from the members of the 11 units.

(c) The financial institutions feel that adequate spinning capacity al ready exists in the country.

(d) Government of Maharashtra had indicated during April, 1986 availability of financial assistance from National Cooperative Development Corporation for 6 mills and tie up under export oriented programme for 3 mills. The projects for the remaining 11 mills were under implementation by the State Government.

Export of raw cotton

1998. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA: Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state;

(a) whether it is a fact that Mahaashtra State Cotton Federation and Cotton Corporation of India have been allowed to export raw cotton at prices almost 30:40 per cent below their purchase price/support price;

(b) if so, how Government expect the spinning mills to export yarn with only 8 per cent Cash Compensatory Support (CCS) when their competitions in other countries are getting the raw cotton at 31 per cent cheaper price; and

(c) whether it will be appropriate to supply cotton to spinning units at the export price for producing export yarn similar to the policy in regard to steel?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI S. KRISHNA KUMAR): (a) Maharashtra State Cooperative Cotton growers' Marketing Federation and Cotton Corporation of India have exported raw cotton at prices below their purchase price which is the support price or above the support price.

(b) The Spinning mills have also purchased cotton at prices considerably below support prices.

(c) No, Sir.

Military aid to Frontline States of South Africa

1999. SHRI PUTTAPAGA RADHA-KRISHNA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state;
