Selection of Chapter 37 to MODVAT,

1048. SHRI SURESH KALMADI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state;

(a) what was the basis of selection of Chapter 37 for MODVAT;

(b) whether Chapter 95 which covers toys has been taken for Modvat, yet chapter 20 which is for fruit and vegetable based products are not covered under MODVAT; and

(c) whether this is intentional or whether Government wish to encourage Agricultural based products?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) to (c) The Modvat scheme allows credit of the excise duty and additional duty of customs paid on inputs used in the manufacture of final products and thus avoids cascading effects. The implementation of the scheme is to be in stages. In the first phase, it has been extended to goods covered by 37 specified chapters which cover important areas of industrial production, namely, chemical and allied industries, paints and packaging materials, plastics, glass and glassware, rubber products, base metals and articles of base metals, machinery and mechanical appliances including electrical equipments, motor vehicles and certain miscellaneous manufactured products. Since toys fall under Chapter 95, MODVAT relief is available for Toys also.

The MODVAT will also be extended to agricultural-based excisable goods in due course.
