(a) whether it is a fact that cases relating to the service matters of the employees of the autonomous bodies controlled or financed wholly or substantially by the Central Government, pending in the various Lower Courts are being transferred to the Central Administrative Tribunal; and

(b) if so, the details of cases transferred by the various Lower Courts to the Central Administrative Tribunal so far?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI BIREN SINGH ENGTI): (a) and (b) The jurisdiction of the Central Administrative Tribunal has not so far been extended to all the local or other authorities under the control of the Government of India or to the Corporation or Societies owned or controlled by Government. The question of transfer of cases in respect of all such organisations does not, therefore, arise.

However, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal has been extended to the following five organisations w.e.f. 12-5-1986.

Sl. No.	Name of the Organisation	Nature
1	Central Board of Trustees constituted under the Employees Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952.	Statutory body
2	Employees State Insurance Corporation	Corporation
3	Central Board for Workers' Education.	Registered society.
4	National Labour Institute	Do.
5	National Council of Safety in Mines, Dhanbad	Do.

Information regarding transfer of cases in respect of these five organisations will be collected and placed on the table of the House.
