THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRIES OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE AND SOCIAL WELFARE (SHRI P. K. THUNGON): (a) An association namely, National Blind Youth Association started the agitation on 20-3-1984.

(b) and (c) The Association has submitted a Charter of 50 demands relating to education, training and employment of blind persons, enactment of a legislation for securing the interests of the blind and certain matters relating to the National Institute for Visually Handicapped, Dehradun. Many of these demands have already been met and some have been accepted in principle and are in the process of implementation. State Governments have also been requested to take appropriate action, wherever required. The main demand, however, is enactment of legislation for reservation of jobs for the handicapped. Government have not found it possible to accept this demand due to legal and administrative reasons.

(d) A National Council for Handicapped Welfare has been set up under the Chairmanship of Union Minister for Social Welfare, with representatives of Parliament State Min-
