Allotment of Ship for breaking at Alang

2700. SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA: Will the Minister of STEEL AND MINES be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Alang Ship breaking yard in Bhavnagar District is likely to be allotted the same number of ships as during the last year for breaking;

(b) the number of workers employed at Alang Ship breaking yard;

(c) whether it is a fact that there are more than 50 plots for breaking ships at this yard whereas only eight ships are being dismantled at this time; and

(d) whether it is also a fact that as a result of this some workers are likely to be rendered unemployed?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF STEEL AND MINES (SHRI N. K. P. SALVE): (a) No, Sir. The number of ships likely to be allotted to shipbreaking units at Alang during 1984-85 is expected to be more than that allotted in 1983-84.

(b) According to the information furnished by Government of Gujarat at present approximately 2500 workers are directly and indirectly employed at the ship-breaking yard at Alang out of which only about 500 are permanent.

(c) There are 60 plots at Alang. At present 46 plots are operational and the matter regarding the remaining 14 plots is sub-judice. According to the information furnished by the State Government 19 ships are being dismantled at the moment at Alang.

(d) The number of workers employed at any particular point of time mainly depends upon the number of ships being broken. Since the number of ships being broken fluctuate from time to time, the number of workers employed therefor also fluctuate from time to time.
