

of terrorists going to Bangladesh, get arms training and coming back. So, I would like to know what steps the Government of India have taken for setting up border posts and other means to see that the law and order problem which is otherwise quiet in Tripura, is not jeopardised because of this continuous infiltration.

SHRIMATI RAM DULARI SINHA: The measures and steps that we have taken in order to deal effectively with extremists are, we have further strengthened para-military forces there. In addition to 23 companies of CRPF, we have made available to the State Governments more companies. More Companies have been provided to them recently, these are mostly meant for law and order and anti-insurgency operations. We have also added one battalion of BSF to the existing six battalions already deployed for border security duty.

MR. CHAIRMAN: That is enough question hour is over.

SHRI KALYAN ROY: As you say, Sir. I always abide by your orders.
