

Introduction of computerisation in the Income Tax Department

936. SHRI NAND KISHORE BHATT: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what are the reasons for re-introducing computerisation in the Income-Tax Department;

(b) whether it is a fact that computerisation in the Income-Tax Department is likely to lead to a shrinkage of employment potential and a eventual joblessness and also retrenchment of employees; and

(c) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI S. M. KRISHNA): (a) Government have consulted M/s Computer Maintenance Corporation in the matter and their report is under consideration. For the immediate need of the Department, the following minor computerised applications have been developed by the EDP Centre of Directorate of Inspection (System):—

1. Monitoring accuracy in the manual calculation of taxes in high revenue yielding cases.

2. Quarterly review of Central Action Plan of the Department.

3. Compilation of key area performance statistics.

4. Processing of challans received in the Central Treasury Unit of Commissioner Charges.

5. Allotment of Permanent Account Number (PAN).

6. Processing of applications for approval of terms and conditions of service contract outside India u/s 80 RRA of the Income-tax Act.

(b) and (c) Computerisation in the Income-tax Department will not lead to retrenchment of employees and is also unlikely to lead to shrinkage of employment potential and eventual joblessness.
