

(b) the steps being taken by Government to meet the situation arising out of the after-effects of the strike?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SHIPPING AND TRANSPORT (SHRI Z. R. ANSARI): (a) and (b) Bargomen employed by a particular boating contractor had stopped loading jute goods in boats from jetties of a few mills from 10 January, 1985 to 11 February, 1985 due to certain disputes with the boating contractor. As a result, these mills were experiencing difficulties in placing their exportable jute goods alongside ocean going vessels during above period. The disputes have since been resolved and normalcy in loading jute goods from these companies has been restored from 12 February, 1985 onwards.
