Consultancy for Hindi computers

611. DR. LOKESH CHANDRA; SHRI P. N. SUKUL:

SHRIMATI USHA MALHOTRA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state;

(a) whether consultancy for Hindi computers has commenced; and

(b) if so, what are the details of fulltime personnel engaged in the Department of Electronics to develop Hindi computer software?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRONICS AND IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI M. S. SANJEEVI RAO):

(a) No, Sir. Government is not giving any consultancy for Hindi Computers at present. However, Department of Electronics is taking promotional measures for the use of Devanagari in computers including the development of the Input/ Output devices.

(b) Department of Electronics has set up a 'Hindi Computerization Cell' in July 1982, for the development of software for Devanagari computers and for the coordination of development programme in the field. At present there are three personnel in the cell engaged in the work..

Consultancy for Computers

812. DR. LOKESH CHANDRA:

SHRI P. N. SUKUL;

SHRIMATI USHA MALHOTRA:

"Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state;

(a) whether Government computers are planned to be equipped with bilingual (Hindi and English) report processing facility; and

(b) whether there is any operational infrastructure to provide consultancy for computer based problem-solving and personnel training for Central and State Government Departments in Hindi?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRONICS AND IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI M. S. SANJEEVI RAO):

(a) No, Sir. There is no plan to equip all Government computers with bilingual report processing facility. However, as and when required, computers using Hindi input/output facilities as may be introduced.

(b) The use of computers using Devanagari is not substantially different from those using English in the area of problem solving. Therefore, the Central and State Government Departments who have the necessary competence in computer based problem solving in English at present can very well handle the same in Hindi, in case they want to switch-over to the Hindi medium. Those organisation who are currently assisting the Central and State Government Departments in Computer Based Problem Solving and personnel training using English as a medium can assist the Department who want to switch-over to the Hindi medium as well.
