

Plan allocation for education

771. SHRI ARABINDA GHOSH: Will the Minister of EDUCATION AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Government have been drastically cutting down the outlay for education in the successive Five Year Plans; and

(b) if not, what are the reasons for reducing the allocation of funds for education in the total plan provision from 7.6 per-cent in the First Plan to 6.99 per cent in the Sixth Plan?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRIES OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE AND SOCIAL WELFARE (SHRIMATI SHEILA KAUL): (a) No, Sir. The Plan Outlay on Education has successively increased from Rs. 170 crores in the First Five Year Plan to Rs. 2524 crores in the Sixth Five Year Plan.

(b) Despite increased outlay in absolute terms, the percentage allocation for education in the Sixth Plan (2.6 per cent.) is lower than that of First Plan (7.2 per cent.). This is due to higher percentage of Plan allocations for other sectors such as agriculture, irrigation and power to meet their investment needs in keeping with the national objectives of economic development with social justice.
