RE: DEMAND FOR MINISTER'S RESIGNATION—Contd.

SHRI M. VENKAIAH NAIDU (Karnataka): Sir, my submission is, with due respect to the Government, whenever a serious issue comes up and becomes a matter of great controversy, — just now the Minister was saying that the concerned Minister was willing to come and make a statement — then, the Government should come forward and tell the House in the beginning itself that the Minister would like to make a statement and that it would be done at the appropriate time. Otherwise, when the Opposition gives a notice, then, the Chair should allow the Opposition to submit whatever points they want to make, and then, direct the Government to make a statement. Only if it happens the other way round, then, there is hangama ...(Interruptions)

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: We suggested that this could be taken up during the Zero Hour. But that was not agreed to...(Interruptions)

SHRI S.S. AHLUWALIA (Jharkhand): Let this be allowed. The Government is not serious about it...(Interruptions) The entire country is discussing it. All channels are showing it...(Interruptions)
