- (b) Review of cooperation in the field of information and communication among the nonaligned countries, lowering of telecommunication tariffs; review of the working of the Nonaligned News Agencies Pool and of the Broadcasting Organisation of Nonaligned Countries (BONAC); and determining Coordination among nonaligned countries, were the main issues on the Agenda of the Conference.
- (c) The Conference emphasise? importance of the principles of collective self-reliance and mutual cooperation among nonaligned countries for making a concrete contribution towards correcting the imbalances of interna-tional flow of information and disparities in communication capabilities. The Conference adopted an Action Programme relating inter alia to the News Agencies Pool, Broadcasting Organisations of the Non-aligned Countries, telecommunication tariff reduction and cooperation in print media as well as films. It also recommended that the Ministers of Communication and of Information 'of countries acting as redistribution centres for Non-aligned News Agencies Pool might meet this year to work out practical proposals on telecommunication tariff reduction. The Conference finalised the criteria for the Intergovernmental Council for coordination of activities among the nonaligned countries in the field of information and communication. It adopted Resolutions in support of UNESCO and against the use of Radio as an instrument of hostile broadcasts against nonaligned countries. The Conference also adopted the Jakarta Appeal to the Mass Media, reflecting the consensus on the lines along which media activity should be conducted for the common benefit of mankind.
