

(b) whether it is a fact that the Scheduled Castes to whom the surplus land was allotted under the directives of the Prime Minister, have not been given possession of the allotted land in the country; and

(c) whether the Scheduled Castes landless labourers in villages are to be allotted surplus land now and in years to come?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI HARINATHA MISHRA): (a) to (c) Distribution of surplus land in the States is done under laws enacted by the State Legislatures. There are laws also for some of the Union Territories. Under the guidelines issued by the Government of India in 1972 on the basis of the recommendations of the Chief Ministers' Conference, priority in the distribution of surplus land is to be given to landless agricultural workers, specially to those who belong to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. Under the laws enacted in the light of the national guidelines, 20.36 lakh acres have been distributed to 14.98 lakh persons so far in the country. Of this 7.56 lakh acres have been distributed to 6.22 lakh families belonging to the Scheduled Castes. The scheme of priority mentioned above is intended to continue till the completion of the distribution of surplus land. The States have to ensure that allottees of surplus land are given possession of their land with utmost expedition and that they are able to keep it under their possession. The States have been urged from time to time to take steps in this direction. Suitable legal and administrative measures for this purpose are to be taken by the States.
