E.K.B.r. Scheme in Orissa

3357. SHRI GAYA CHAND BHUYAN: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Central Government are aware that scheme, known as E.R.R.P., is being supplemented in Orissa by apportioning some quantum of funds out of Integrated Rural Development Programme, Special Component Plan for Scheduled Castes and Tribal Sub-plan etc.; if so, whether this apportionment conforms to the guidelines issued by the Ministry of Rural Development; and

(b) what is the number of families which have crossed the poverty line with the assistance of E.R.R.P. programmes?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI HARI NATH MISHRA): (a) Yes, Sir. The Integrated Rural Development Programme" permits dovetailing of funds with State schemes like E.R.R.P. with higher subsidy pattern but the beneficiaries assisted and the projects taken up should conform to the IDR guidelines and the total subsidy should not exceed the higher level of subsidy under the State scheme. Some of the components of the ERRP which is a State plan scheme are the same as those of IRDP. Regarding special component plan for scheduled castes and tribal sub-plan, no separate guidelines have been issued by the Ministry of Rural Development.

(b) The Ministry of Rural Development have not compiled this information, as E.R.R.P. is purely a State programme.
