

5. Pondicherry: The Government of Pondicherry also provide financial assistance of Rs. 10,000/- in case of death of fishermen while fishing through the Welfare and Distress Relief Society.

6. The Government of India have recently introduced a Centrally Sponsored Scheme on Group accident insurance for active fishermen. This scheme has been communicated to all the State Government/Union Territories. This Scheme covers the fishermen of inland, estuarine and marine sectors, who are and would be members of Fishermen Cooperative Societies/Federation/recognised welfare organisation. An Annual premium on each policy is Rs. 12/- for providing an insurance cover of Rs. 15,000/- in the event of death or permanent disability due to accident and Rs. 7,500/- in the case of partial disability. The Central Government would subsidise 50 per cent of the annual premium and the remainder 50 per cent will be borne by the States/U.Ts. either directly or in conjunction with the organisations of which the fishermen are members. The Central subsidy will be released through the State Governments to the organisation based on the yearly premium which such organisation will pay to the insurance companies.
