J.N.U.

2910. SHRI KALRAJ MISHRA:
Will the Minister of EDUCATION be pleased to state:

(a) what are the criteria for evaluation of M.Phil./Ph.D./dissertation/Theses in Jawaharlal Nehru University;

(b) what is the average time needed for evaluation of M. Phil dissertation and Ph.D. theses; and

(c) what is the longest/shortest time taken for evaluation of M. Phil. dissertation and also the Ph.D. theses?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRIES OF EDUCATION
AND CULTURE AND SOCIAL WEL-

FARE (SHRIMATI SHEILA KAUL)

(a) The procedure for evaluation of dissertations and Ph.D. Theses is given in the University Ordinance relating to the award of the degree of Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Philosophy. Generally, these Ordinances provide for the method of appointment of examiners; conducting the viva-voce examination by a Board comprising the examiners and the supervisor(s); and the recommendations of Committee for Advanced Studies and Research to the Academic Council for the award of the degrees.

(b) The University expects that the evaluation report of Ph.D. thesis is sent by the examiners to the University within six weeks while the evaluation report of M. Phil. dissertation is sent to them within three weeks. Thereafter viva-voce is arranged at the convenience of the examiners.

(c) The longest/shortest time taken for evaluation of M. Phil. dissertation and Ph.D. thesis is two years and one month, respectively.
