All India Radio, Kashmir

1346. SHRI ABDUL REHMAN SHIEKH: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that while broadcasting news and other programmes from Srinagar, the name of the Broadcasting Station is announced as "Radio Kashmir" where as in other parts of the country the name of the Broadcasting Station is suffixed after announcing "All India Radio"; and

(b) if so, what is the reaction of the Government with regard thereto particularly when the State of Jammu and Kashmir is a part of India?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI VASANT SATHE): (a) and (b) The A.I.R. Station in Srinagar, for various historical reasons, is annuounced as "Radio Kashmir, Srinagar". There is no proposal at present to change the description of this station.

Stationing of DOgra Troupe at Srinagar

1347. SHRI ABDUL RAHMAN SHIEKH: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a Dogra Troupe of the Songs and Drama Division has been stationed at Srinagar despite the fact that their programmes are mostly meant to cater Jammu, Kangra and other Dogra speaking areas;

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor;

(c) what is the annual expenditure being incurred on the troupe on account of their travel etc. to various places in connection with their programmes; and

(d) whether Government have considered the desirability of stationing the troupe at Jammu to save expenditure and if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI VASANT SATHE):

(a) Yes, Sir. A Dogri speaking Troupe of the Song and Drama Division is stationed at Srinagar. It covers Dogri speaking areas of Jammu whereas Kangra is covered by the Border Troupe located at Simla.

(b) The Border Publicity Centre at Srinagar has four border troupes and one Departmental Drama Troupe. One troupe is meant for Kashmiri speaking area, one for Ladakhi area, one for Kistwad, Bhadrawa and one for Dogri speaking area. For administrative efficiency and programme control, all border publicity troupe in Jammu and Kashmir are Headquartered at Srinagar,

(c) Details are being collected.

(d) Keeping in view the need for proper administrative and programme control it has not been considered desirable to locate the troupe in Jammu. Besides such a measure is likely to result in duplication of administrative support facilities and expenditure.
