

the progress made in trade and economic cooperation between the two countries. They also reviewed the Indo-Romanian Trade Protocol for 1982. The Indian side stressed the need to closely monitor actual shipments to ensure that the contracts concluded are fully implemented. Both sides agreed to make earnest efforts to achieve actual trade turnover of Rs. 330 crores in 1982. Both sides also recognised the scope of joint execution, joint tendering and sub-contracting in third country projects, especially in the field of power, steel, textiles and petro-chemical sectors. It was also agreed that apart from know-how and equipment, Indian consultancy and Managerial services could also be associated in the execution of these projects.

3. A protocol was signed on 29th of April, 1982 by the leaders of two delegations reflecting the aforesaid decisions. It is expected that this will lead to increase in volume and diversity of exports to Romania, from this country.
