Kerala Institute of Nautical Studies

2176. SHRI O. J. JOSEPH: Will the Minister of SHIPPING AND TRANSPORT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have agreed in principle for the setting up of the Kerala Institute of Nautical Studies and starting the "Seamen Training Course" at Vizhinjam; and

(b) if so, what steps are being taken to give recognition to this institution in order to get maximum benefit or the trainees to get employment in marine profession?

THE MINISTER OF SHIPPING AND TRANSPORT (SHRI VEERENDRA PATIL): (a) and (b) The Government of Kerala had sought recognition of the Kerala Institute of Nautical Studies on 5-12-1980. The Government of India have at present three Ratings Training Institutions. The optimum training capacity of the three institutions is 840 per annum. It is considered that the existing three institutions are more than adequate at present to meet the requirement of trained seamen. Government have also set up an Expert Committee on Unemployment of Seamen recently. The terms of reference of the Committee include the question of future set up of the three Rating Training Institutions. Having regard to this the question of granting recognition is under consideration.
