

unauthorised occupation as on 31st December, 1980;

(b) what is the amount of damages recovered by DDA in this behalf; and

(c) what is Government's policy regarding the disposal of such plots/properties to the occupants who are in possession of these plots/properties for more than ten years?

THE MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND WORKS AND HOUSING (SHRI BHISHMA NARAIN SINGH): (a) The Delhi Development Authority has reported that as no survey of encroachments has been done recently, it is not possible to indicate their exact number. However, as per existing records, there were 3586 such properties in unauthorised occupation as on 31st December, 1980.

(b) The Delhi Development Authority has stated that the amount of damages recovered by it from the encroachers of Nazul plots/properties under it for the period from 1971-72 to the 31st December, 1980 is Rs. 110.35 lakhs.

(c) The Delhi Development Authority has reported that, as far as possible, those refugees who are covered by Gadgil Assurances will be adjusted on the same plots as unauthorisedly occupied by them provided these structures do not interfere with the layout plan of the area. There is, however, no policy as yet to dispose of Nazul plots/properties under the Delhi Development Authority to other persons who have encroached upon such properties whatever may be the duration of encroachment.
