

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI VASANT SATHE): (a) The findings of the survey conducted by Door-darshan reveal that the viewers desire lesser number of advertisements with popular programmes like feature films and other film-based programmes.

(b) To reduce the clutter of advertisements with popular programmes (like feature film/feature film-based programmes), an additional weekly 'Chhayageet' programme has been introduced over Bombay Kendra from 2nd February, 1982 and an additional weekly 'Chitrahaar' programme is proposed to be introduced over Delhi Kendra from 2nd April, 1982. Also the tariff structure rationalised recently makes bookings of commercials with non-feature film-based programmes more attractive, resulting in wider distribution of advertisements.

(c) There is no proposal to reduce the time for advertisements. However, efforts are being made to telecast more programmes in which viewers are interested.
