Fair Price Shops in West Bengal

2554 SHRI SUDHAKAR PANDEY:

SHRI PRASENJIT BABMAN:

Will the Minister of CIVIL SUPPLIES be pleased to state:

(a) the number of fair price shops opened so far in each district of West Bengal with locations thereof; and

(b) the number of fair price shops likely to be opened all over the country including each of the districts of West Bengal in the remaining three years of the Sixth Five Year Plan period?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRIES OF AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT (MISS KAMLA KUMARI): (a) The information is being collected from the Government of West Bengal, and the same will be laid on the Table of the House.

(b) Under the revised 20-Point Programme, it is proposed to open about 10,000 more fair-price shops in the country by the end of the year 1982-83, the break-up to depend on the specific requirements of and coverage decided by each State/Union Territory. It is not possible at this stage to precisely assess the number of shops to be opened in the remaining years of the Sixth Five-Year Plan period.
