RAJYA SABHA

(b) the details thereof;

(c) whether it is a fact that the country which churns out 15 lakh graduates every year is not in a position to meet with the needs of the booming I.T. Sector;

(d) whether leading IT Companies in the country are searching abroad for such expertise; and

(e) the need for reservation and blocking of seats in Institutes of higher learning?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (DR. SHAKEEL AHMAD): (a) to (c) No, Sir. The Task Force on 'Human Resource Development in Information Technology' set up by Government of India had noted that the issue of manpower gap is not as much about the institutional seat availability as about the nature of skills and training provided in these institutions.

(d) As per National Association of Software and Service Companies (NASSCOM) the companies are currently hiring overseas for their local requirements, some have also established operations in other countries.

(e) Does not arise.
