Sick industries

1735. SHRI G. C. BHATTACHARYA: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state

H? (a) what are the reasons for which Government have changed the policy of not returning sick industries to its owners after they are taken over; and

(b) whether this change is likely to perpetuate malpractices by unscrupulous industrialists and entail loss of public money?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY AND LABOUR (SHRI NARAYAN DATT TIWARI): (a) Government will consider de-notification of only such taken-over units which cannot be revived and made viable within a reasonable period of time, through any of the available alternatives. Continued management of such units under the provisions of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 will not be considered to be in public interest.

(b) After a unit has been de-notified, the banks and financial institutions will deal with it in accordance with the normal banking procedures.
