SHRI P. RAMAMURTI : Sir, I wish to mention a matter of public importance concerning the Government and the Delhi University teachers. These teachers have been on dharna before the Education Minister's office since yesterday. They have been driven to resorting to direct action because of the inaction of the Government of India, particularly the Minister of Education, because they have been putting up certain demands for a number of years. They have been writing to the Government from 1974. Their demands went unheeded. They have been writing to the Vice-Chancellor of the University, to the Chairman of the UGC and all sorts of people.
