Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board

1947. SHRIMATI KANAK MUKHERJEE: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board is an independent recruitment agency as stipulated in the rules and bye-laws of the ICAR Society;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the Government have decided to have two nominees of the President of the ICAR Society on the Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board for selection of scientists for management posts; and

(c) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND RURAL RECONSTRUCTION (SHRI R. V. SWAMINATHAN): (a) Yes, Madam.

(b) and (c) No, Madam. It is not fact that two nominees of the President, Indian Council of Agricultural Research Society have been included in the Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board. The Chairman, Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board constitutes Selection Committees for making selections to various posts. These Selection Committees consist of experts in the disciplines concerned and a representative of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research besides the Chairman, Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board or his nominee. On the recommendations of the Estimates Committee of the Lok Sabha made in their 35th Report, recently a number of improvements have been introduced in the working of the Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board. One of the changes introduced in consultation with the Chairman, Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board and with the approval of the Government is that for scientific posts in the scale of Rs. 2000—2500 and above, the Selection Committees will consist of two experts nominated by the Chairman, Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board and two experts nominated by the President, Indian Council of Agricultural Research from a panel of eminent and appropriate experts submitted by the Director-General. In addition, each Selection Committee would have a representative of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research as provided in the rules. This change is expected to improve the functioning of the Selection Committees and the Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board.
