

and what are the revised dates of its completion, stating the reasons for delay in the completion of the project; and

(c) what is the extent of cost escalation as a result of delay in its completion and the Central allocation so far made for this Project?

THE MINISTER OF ENERGY (SHRI A. B. A. GHANI KHAN CHAUDHURI): (a) to (c) According to the report submitted in 1964, by the Government of Punjab, the cost of the Project was Rs. 69.63 crores. In 1979, the Central Electricity Authority (CEA) accorded tech-no-economic approval to the Project at a cost of Rs. 263.16 crores. Due to inter-State issues involved, the Project could not be taken up for execution earlier. A Project of this magnitude would normally take about 8 years to be completed. The Project is being financed by the Punjab Government through their State Plans.

Attack on freedom of the Press

*386. SHRI RAM LAKHAN PRASAD GUPTA: SHRI LAL K. ADVANI;

Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the National Union of Journalists (India) have expressed their concern against the recent attacks on the Freedom of the Press and also against the arrest of some journalists in Aligarh and the alleged misbehaviour of the Commissioner of Agra Division with Journalists there; and

(b) if so, what are the details in this regard and what action Government propose to take in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI VASANT SATHE): (a) and (b) A statement is laid on the Table of the House.

Statement

Government has seen the Press report on the statement made by the National Union of Journalists (India) demanding action against the Commissioner of Agra Division for alleged misbehaviour with the press-men and also its protest against the arrest of two journalists in Aligarh.

Commission of Agra Division is alleged to have remarked at an informal meeting of the local press about an irresponsible report put out by a news agency from Aligarh that 400 homeguards had not reported for duty during recent disturbances and he allegedly warned them against putting out unconfirmed reports. The Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh later denied on the floor of the State Vidhan Sabha that the Commissioner of Agra Division had misbehaved with press-men.

The two journalists viz. S/Shri P. K. Jain and J. D. Sharma were arrested by the State Government for inflammatory writings and exaggerated reporting on 7th Sept., 1980 under Section 153-A of Indian Penal Code and were subsequently detained under Uttar Pradesh Samaj Virbahi Tatva Nivaran Adhyadesh, 1980 on the same day. Their detention orders under the said Ordinance have been revoked by the State Government on 16-9-1980. Shri P. K. Jain was granted bail on 22-9-1980 and was released on the same day. Shri J. D. Sharma was granted bail on 4-10-1980 and was released on 6-10-1980.

Press in India enjoys full freedom in its functioning. However, the Press as well as the journalists are as much responsible as ordinary citizens who are subject to the law of the land. Their responsibility becomes even greater when their writings or reports concern the question of national security and communal or inter-caste harmony. It has been noticed that there is a tendency in certain small sections of the Press to indulge in sensationalism and exaggeration without considering its detrimental consequences.

quences on national integrity and communal harmony. It is expected that the Members of the Fourth Estate will give due consideration to this aspect in the national interest. As to the above by the cases, we have been informed by the Press Council that they have received no formal complaint from the National Union of Journalists in the matter.
