P.C. by about 2500 persons armed with bows and arrows and other lethal weapons, two leaders Shri Bhubaneswar Mahto and Shri Baisakhi Gope were arrested. This led to armed attack with bows and arrows on the police force deployed with Magistrate to maintain the prohibitory orders. The assembly was declared unlawful and the crowd was asked to disperse. The crowd did not disperse. The police resorted to lathi charge and tear gas shelling were ineffective and the attack continued. Three policemen were killed on the spot and a number of them were injured. The mob then retreated carrying with them two rifles of the dead policemen.

The injured police-men were taken to the local Government hospital about one kilometre away. The mob regrouped and attacked the hospital with the intention of killing the injured police-men. The force then opened fire killing three persons on the spot.

One injured policeman died subsequently. Thus, the total casualties were 4 policemen killed, 17 policemen grievously injured and 11 among the mob killed by police firing.
