

number of impounded cattle appears to be high.

Since this problem of stray cattle is limited to Sadar Bazar Zone only and it does not affect the whole of the city of Delhi, the question of amending the Cattle Trespass Act with which the Ministry of Agriculture is concerned is not considered necessary at this stage. However, the Municipal Corporation of Delhi have intensified their efforts by organising special and regular raids for the rounding off of stray cattle.

Traffic signal at the crossing of Rani Jhansi Road and Jhandewalan Extension in New Delhi

936. SHRIMATI PRATIMA BOSE: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Delhi Administration and Delhi Police are facing administrative difficulties for the last few years for not installing the traffic signals at the crossing of Rani Jhansi Road and Jhandewalan Extension in Delhi where hundreds of accidents take place every year;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the action Government have taken to propose to take in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI YOGENDRA MAKWANA): (a) to (c) Since the beginning of 1978 two non-fatal and one fatal accidents have been reported to have taken place at this crossing. A proposal for providing four phase traffic signal at this crossing, initiated some time ago, has been modified and the modified proposal is being considered for re-designing the intersection.
