(c) As per Seventh Schedule, 'Police' 'Public Order' are State subjects under the Constitution, and as such the primary responsibility of prevention, detection, registration, investigation and prosecution of crimes, including crimes against women, lies with the States Governments and Union Territory Administrations. However, the Union Government attaches highest importance to the matter of prevention and control of crime against women and has enacted legislations such as Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956, Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act, 1986 and Section 67 of the IT Act, 2000, the display of lascivious photographs/films on computer through internet, etc.

The Central Government has been constantly reviewing and strengthening the existing legislations. Amendments have recently been carried out in the Code of Criminal Procedure in 2005 and 2008 and the Indian Penal Code to strengthen the law for prevention of crime against women and taking measures for safeguarding the interest of women.

Ministry of Home Affairs has sent a detailed advisory dated 4th September, 2009 to all State Governments/UT Administrations wherein they have been advised, inter alia, to make comprehensive review of the effectiveness of the law enforcement machinery in tackling the problem of crime against women. The Ministry of Home Affairs have issued another advisory on prevention and control of crime dated 16.07.2010 to the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. 16.07.2010 to the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. These advisories, inter-alia, include gender sensitization of the police personnel, adopting appropriate measures for swift and salutary punishment to the persons found guilty of violence against women, minimizing delays in investigation of murder, rape and torture of women and improving the quality of investigations, setting up 'Crime against Women Cells' in districts where these do not exist, providing adequate counseling centers and shelter homes for women who have been victimized, setting up of special women courts, and improving the effectiveness of schemes developed for the welfare and rehabilitation of women who are victimized. Majority of States/UTs have established Women Cells. Some States have also set up All Women Police stations at district level and Mahila desk at Police Station level.
