Indian Statistical Service

1406. SHRI DINESH GOSWAMI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to refer to the reply to Unstarred Question 1356 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 22nd December, 1977 and state:

(a) whether Government have taken any decision regarding re-organisation of Grade IV of the Indian Statistical Service, if so, what are the details in this regard;

(b) whether it is a fact that hundreds of persons who are serving in feeder list of I.S.S. on an ad hoc basis in Grade IV for the last more than 10 years are still awaiting regularisation;

(c) if so, what are the reasons for delay in settling the matter; and

(d) by when the list of Grade IV officers of I.S.S. is likely to be finalized?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS AND DEPARTMENT OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI P. VENKATASUBBAIAH): (a) No, Sir.

(b) No, Sir. The number of ad hoc appointments in Grade IV posts of the I.S.S. which have lasted more than 10 years is 53.

(c) Pending a decision on reorganisation of Grade IV, regular recruitment to Grade IV was curtailed which has led to a large number of ad hoc appointments for long periods. In view of the deferment of the reorganisation proposals, action is being taken to terminate the ad hoc appointments as early as possible by resorting to a larger number of regular appointments to Grade IV in accordance with the provisions of the I.S.S. Rules.

(d) It is presumed that the Select List for promotion to Grade IV of the Indian Statistical Service is being referred to. In order to fill all vacancies falling in the promotion quota of Grade IV of the Indian Statistical Service, the Ministries/Departments participating in the Indian Statistical Service have been addressed to furnish the requisite information regarding the eligible officers for the purpose of convening a meeting of the Selection Committee for preparation of the Select List for promotion to Grade IV of the Indian Statistical Service. Complete information is, however, still to be received from a number of Ministries/Departments. Efforts are being made to bring out the Select List as early as possible.
