Power for Aluminium Barter Deal between Kerala and Tamil Nadu

@*340A. SHRI S. KUMARAN:
SHRI C. HARIDAS:

Will the Minister of STEEL AND MINES be pleased to state:

@Previously Starred Question 311, transferred from the 30th June, 1980.

(a) whether the Central Government have given any directive to the Tamil Nadu Government with regard to banning the power-for-aluminium barter deal between Kerala and Tamil Nadu; and

(b) if so, what are the details in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND STEEL AND MINES (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) and (b) The Central Government had requested all State Governments concerned including the Government of Tamil Nadu to desist from entering into barter agreements with producers of aluminium as these were contrary to the national policy for distribution of aluminium. The then Adviser to the Governor of Tamil Nadu and the Minister for Electricity of the Kerala Government have approached the Central Government to reconsider the matter and approve the barter agreement executed by MALCO with the Governments of Tamil Nadu and Kerala. In terms of the agreement MALCO would supply 3600 tonnes of EC grade aluminium to the nominees of the Kerala State Electricity Board in consideration of supply of 72 million units of power from that Board. The matter is under consideration of the Central Government.
