

Issue of special commemorative stamps

966. SHRI SYED SHAHABUDDIN: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that special commemorative stamps are issued in honour of great personalities only on occasion of their birth centenary or on the occasion of their 25th, 50th, 100th death anniversary; and

(b) if so, what are the details in this regard and what are the names of the personalities who have been honoured since 1947 with dates of issue of the stamps?

THE MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI C. M. STEPHEN): (a) and (b) The proposals for issue of (Commemorative stamps are placed before the Philatelic Advisory Committee, which examines them with reference to the guidelines for the issue of commemorative stamps. A copy of the guidelines is at statement annexed.

The names of the eminent persons who have been honoured by issue of commemorative stamp from 1947 to 1979 with the dates of issue of the stamps are at Annexure. [See Appendix CXIV, Annexure No. 94].

Statement

Guidelines for the issue of commemorative/Special Postage Stamps

1. Proposals should be taken up well in advance, say about a year before the proposed date of issue, to enable proper examination, designing, approval, announcement, printing and supply of stamps as part of a planned programme.

2. A commemorative stamp may not be issued honouring a living personality.

3. The personalities on whom commemorative stamps are issued may be of national or international importance and the occasion may be ordinarily birth centenary or 10th/25th/50th/100th death anniversary. Commemorative stamps may be issued on the first death anniversary of the personality only in very exceptional cases.

4. No stamp may ordinarily be issued commemorating an institution unless the occasion is its centenary.

5. Events of very important national or international character may only be considered for issue of stamps, occasions of lesser importance may be commemorated by providing special cancellations.

6. Commemorative/Special stamps issued in a year may be about 40 and of these stamp on eminent personalities may be about 10.

Setting up of Branch Post Office at Keesia Madhubani, Bihar

967. SHRI SHIVA CHANDRA JHA: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to set up public telephone booths in the branch post offices of Madhubani district in particular and in Bihar in general;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(c) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI C. M. STEPHEN): (a) Yes, Sir. Those Branch Post Offices which fall within the purview of the existing policy for providing Public Telephones (PTs) even on loss basis will be provided with telephone facilities. A copy of the policy is enclosed herewith.
