Construction of an embankment on Kaljani river in Coach Benar district

11202. SHRI JAHARLAL BANERJEE:
SHRI AHMAD HOSSAIN
MONDAL: SHRI PRASANJIT
BARMAN:

Will the Minister of IRRIGATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have received any representation indicating Bangladesh's opposition to the construction of an embankment on the bank of the river Kaljani at village Balabhut in Tufanganj P.S. in Cooch-Bihar district, West Bengal; and

(b) if so, what action Government have taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF IRRIGATION
(SHRI KEDAR PANDE): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Government of West Bengal have reported that seven submersible permeable sal ballah screens were constructed last year, and in the 1979 floods, three of the screens were damaged and washed away by the currents. After reviewing the performance of last year, work has been taken up by the State Government on the reconstruction of the three screens.

Such anti-erosion works in the form of screens have no adverse effect on the Bangladesh territory.
