

draft in the States of Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Orissa, Punjab, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh on 25-2-1980 i.e., just three months after the rolls were finally published last year. In this sense it is true that this is the first time that the electoral rolls have been taken up for revision after a very short interval.

However, in 1976, also, the Election Commission decided to up-to-date the electoral rolls prepared with reference to 1-1-1975 as the qualifying date and which had been finally published on 28-2-1975. A summary revision of electoral rolls with reference to 1-1-1976 as the qualifying date was undertaken and the rolls so revised were finally published on 16-3-1976.

(d) and (e) Presumably, the reference is to the missing- of names of voters from the electoral rolls. Complaints were received in the Election Commission, on the dates of poll and subsequently, regarding the omission/ deletion of names of eligible voters from the electoral rolls. Most of the complaints were of general nature alleging large scale omission of names in the electoral rolls. It was not, therefore, possible to ascertain the correctness of the complaints and take action thereon.
