

The position of the above Bills is as follows:

(i) The Kerala Casual, Temporary and Badli Workers (Wages) Bill, 1977:

Some provisions in this Bill remained in correspondence between the Government of India and the State Government. A reply from the State Government has been received and the case is under the consideration of Government.

(ii) The Kerala Headload Workers Bill, 1978:

The comments of the Government of India were brought to the notice of the State Government for their reactions which are awaited.

(iii) The Public Property (Prevention of Destruction and Loss) Bill, 1978:

In view of the fact that I.P.C. Amendment Bill, 1978 (which also contained provisions regarding mischief to public property) was on the anvil and had been passed by the Rajya Sabha, the State Government had agreed that the assent of the President may be withheld from the Kerala Bill. However, with the dissolution of the Sixth Lok Sabha, the I.P.C. Amendment Bill, 1978 has lapsed. This development has been brought to the notice of the State Government and their present reactions solicited.

(iv) The Kerala District Administration Bill, 1979:

The Bill is under the consideration of the Government of India in consultation with the Ministries/Departments concerned.

(v) The Kerala Cashew Workers Relief and Welfare Fund Bill, 1979:

This Bill has been received recently and is under consideration of the Government of India in consultation "with the Ministries/Departments concerned.
