Orphans and abandoned children in the country

694. SHRI KISHAN LAL SHARMA: Will the Minister of EDUCATION, SOCIAL WELFARE AND CULTURE be pleased to state what is the number of orphans and abandoned children in the country and the steps taken so far for their welfare?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION, SOCIAL WELFARE AND CULTURE (SHRI MATI RENUKA DEVI BARKATAKI): Information with regard to the number of orphans and abandoned children in the country is not available, as no comprehensive survey on the extent of destitution has been conducted so far.

To tackle the problem of destitution among children, this Department is implementing a Scheme entitled "Scheme for the services for children in need of care and protection", under which grant-in-aid is given to voluntary organisations through the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations, for the maintenance of destitute/orphan children between the age group of 5—18 years. The scheme provides for ameliorative services such as food, shelter, clothing, medical attention besides developmental services of education, pre-vocational and vocational training, vocational guidance recreation, etc. A part from the services of an institutional nature referred, to above, a Scheme for developing Foster Care Services is also under implementation. All the State Governments and Union Territory Administrations have been requested by the Minister of Education and Social Welfare to take urgent steps to contain the problem of destitution within a period of five years.
