

reorganising and regrouping themselves. The CP(ML) cadres have been particularly active among peasants, landless labourers and industrial workers. Several incidents of their instigating the share croppers and the Adivasis to forcibly harvest crops from land cultivated by them or illegally transferred (from) forefathers came to notice. No serious law and order problem, however, arose on account of such instigation although tensions prevailed for some time. The police continue to maintain vigilance."

The State Government have stated that no serious law and order problem has arisen on account of the activities of Naxalites so far.

Shortage of Colour Negative and Positive Films

355. SHRI F. M. KHAN: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a shortage of colour negative and positive films in Southern States of the country and this has affected the production of colour movies in the regional languages, particularly in Karnataka, if so, what are the details in this regard; and

(b) what remedial steps Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI LAL K. ADVANI): (a) There is no shortage of colour negative and positive cine raw film in Southern States. One particular brand of colour negative is, however, in short supply at present.
