(c) what are the reasons for which no precautions were taken to meet the contingencies of the situation; and

(d) what steps Government propose to take to avoid such lapses in future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI DHANIK LAL MANDAL):

(a) Possibility of trouble in the premises of the Shah Commission on 22-4-78 when Shri Sanjay Gandhi was to appear was anticipated and the Shah Commission had requested the Delhi Administration to make suitable arrangements. Besides, an unsigned letter dated 20-4-78 was also received in the Home Minister's Personal Section forewarning about possibility of a riotous situation being created on that day.

(b) On arrival of Shri Sanjay Gandhi at about 9.30 a.m. slogans and counter slogans were raised inside the Commission by supporters of Shri Gandhi and the opposite group. There were also scuffles between the members of both the groups;

(c) Adequate police arrangements had been made both inside as well as outside the Commission's hall and requisite precautions taken to control any trouble which enabled the developing situation to be dealt with adequately.

(d) Does not arise.
