

units in Karnataka are not able to function at their optimum capacity. This is a fact and there is no contradiction in this. There is power shortage and it has been there over a period of time. Last year we lost half a million tonnes of cement production only because adequate power was not available in certain States.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question Hour is over.

AN HON. MEMBER: In Karnataka under which Government?

SHRI GEORGE FERNANDES: It is because Shri Devraj Urs was in power and he continues to be there.
