

which is a prescribed function of the Ministry of Home Affairs;

(b) whether the incumbents of such posts are placed in the surplus pool, before abolishing their posts; and

(c) if so, what are the details in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. D. PATIL): (a) Yes, Sir. The Ministries/Departments who are empowered under the 'Delegation of Financial Powers Rules, 1978' to create permanent posts are competent to abolish such posts.

(b) Only the incumbents rendered surplus on account of abolition of permanent posts for the following reasons are placed in the Central (Surplus Staff) Cell and the posts held by them are abolished with effect from the date of their transfer to the Cell: —

(i) introduction of administrative reforms by the Department of Administrative Reforms;

(ii) studies made by the Staff/ Inspection Unit of the Ministry of Finance;

(iii) suo-moto studies of work measurement or other administrative reforms undertaken by Ministries; and

(iv) abolition or winding up of permanent or long term Organisations of the Central Government as a result of change in Government policy or as a measure of administrative reforms.

(c) Surplus persons are, as far as possible, redeployed against vacancies carrying matching pay scales within their permissible stay of six months on the rolls of the Central (Surplus Staff) Cell. The 'surplus persons' rendered to the Cell can opt for voluntary retirement on terms which are quite generous and attractive namely weightage of 5 years service given to those who have rendered not less than 15 years of qualifying service provided they do so within two months from the date of their transfer to the Cell.
