Licences for the manufacture of T.V. sets and electronic calculators

1337. SHRI V. P. MUNUSAMY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that licences for the manufacture of TV sets and electronic calculators were issued during the past ten years mostly to units located around Delhi due to their 'lobby power' and better access to the policy-makers;

(b) what step Government have taken both at policy-making and policy-implementation levels to ensure that licences issued for setting up industrial units manufacturing a particular product are equitably spread out in different States and Union Territories in proportion to their population to realise the Government's objective of creating job opportunities throughout the country; and

(c) whether it is a fact that most of the applications for industrial licences are kept pending for lack of policy-decision?

THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRI MORARJI DESAI): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Industrial licences/approvals are not issued on the basis of population in different States/Union Territories. At the same time, efforts have been/are being made to distribute the manufacturing capacities for TV sets and electronic calculators more equitably throughout the country, including those regions where the electronics industry had not developed satisfactorily in the past.

(c) No, Sir.
