tPreviously Unstarred Question 987 transferred from the 6th December, 1978.

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI H. M. PATEL): (a) and (b). The working Group on Sick Units set up by Government, after the meeting of P.M. with the Chairmen of banks has recommended that a National Equity Fund should be set up at national level so that small scale units are not set up with weak equity base. The Working Group on small scale industries has also recommended that for tiny sector industries with investment in plant and machinery not exceeding Rs. 1 lakh, there is need to provide equity support from budgetary sources. Such equity loans should be on soft terms and there should not be any repayment for first 5 to 7 years. Thereafter it should be repaid in a further period of 5—7 years. Only a nominal interest should be charged on the loan, and repayment of interest should start only after the moratorium period. The equity assistance should be for a minimum amount of Rs. 5000 and maximum of Rs. 50,000 subject to 25 per cent of the total cost of the scheme.

(c) Once these recommendations are implemented, they would be applicable to individual tiny sector units, under State sponsored schemes.

Report of senior officers on areas of corruption in the customs and excise department

1529. SHRIMATI H. AMID A. HABIBULLAH:

SHRI SAWAISINGH SISODIA:

SHRI PRAKASH MEHROTRA:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a group of senior officers have submitted a report to Government on areas of corruption in the Customs and Excise Department; and

(b) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI SATISH AGARWAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The report brings out the areas and points where corruption is possible and has to be guarded against, but does not refer to any specific instances of corruption. To guard against misuse of the detailed information contained in the report by officers or assesseees, the report is being treated as a confidential document so far as the general public is concerned. However, some important suggestions of a general nature which are contained in the report are given in the Statement.

Statement

Abstract of some important suggestions of a general nature contained in the Report of the Working group on areas of corruption in the Customs and Excise Department

1. Proper attention should be paid to selection of primary and supervisory staff and to arrangements for effective vigilance control at sensitive points.

2. Effective vigilance will need to be backed by a sound system of intelligence, covering evasion and collusion.

3. Institutionalised corruption should be located and the guilty officers or their agents or touts should be exposed.

4. Unexplained fall in revenue should be critically examined to ensure that it is not due to collusive corruption.

5. Reiteration to senior officers of the need for personal attention in such matters as avoidance of unduly long suspension, minimising delays in disciplinary proceedings, preparation of 'Agreed List' of officers of doubtful integrity and strengthening of administration by weeding out the corrupt and inefficient.

(5. Need for close liaison between the various Directorates, such as Inspection, Audit, Organization and
